INTERESTING ITEMS FROM EL VERANO AND VICINITY.

Weekly Record of all the Happenings in His Town
as Faithfully Recorded by Our Wide-Awake
Reporter, "Archie McKiver."

F. A. Riser was a visitor to Francisco Saturday.

W. J. Minkel was an El Verano visitor to the Bay City Sunday.

Joe Ryan, the well known Constable of Sonoma, was in town last Saturday.

H. C. Manuel forwarded two cars of basalt blocks to San Francisco this week.

Lawyers Frank Sprague, Poppe and Mathewson of Sonoma were passengers for Santa Rosa Monday.

William Ives visited in Santa Rosa last Sunday, returning to his home here Monday morning.

Patrick Kearney is here from San Francisco and is enjoying a vacation at the Kearney home.

The well-known and popular trade of "snipe-shooter," so prevalent in the large towns and cities, has at last reached El Verano.

George H. Barron, the gentlemanly and popular curator at the park museum, San Francisco, is spending the week in our town.

Pop Rice, owner of the Orpheum bar, San Francisco, is spending the summer at the Villa. Pop likes the place and intends to locate here permanently in the near future.

The hotels and resorts are filling up with guests and the very latest styles in brilliant gowns and stunning head gear will be seen on our streets for several months to come.

A large force of carpenters are at work on Mr. J. K. Bigelow's new home west of here. When completed it will be a palatial residence among truly beautiful surroundings.

A. W. Weaver, the pioneer blacksmith, is still at his old stand in this bailiwick, and the vigorous pounding on his anvil can be heard all day long, indicating that business in his line is good.

This Republic's flag day and the one hundred and sixty-sixth anniversary of the battle of Bunker Hill were observed in this burg by unfurling to the breeze the "Star Spangled Banner" from the forty-foot flagpole in the lawn of "Garry-owen Cottage."

Charlie Johnson of San Francisco is spending a few days in town renewing old acquaintanceships.

George S. Andrews, passenger conductor of the Southern Pacific Company on the run between Santa Rosa and South Vallejo, is off on a leave of absence. His run will be in charge of C. L. Taber of the freight train service during his absence.

Al Benham, the well known and popular drummer for the William Peck Co. of San Francisco, was in town Monday. Al tips the scales at considerably over two hundred pounds and is thinking about taking an anti-fat treatment.

Otto Smith, a young book-keeper from one of the large business houses in San Francisco who came here a few weeks ago for his health, passed away at the Spindler ranch last Sunday morning. The remains were taken to San Francisco Sunday afternoon.

Sam Chase, who is spending the summer at this place, lost a wallet containing $45 last Saturday. Sam has an eye on the party who was seen to pick up the purse and says that if it is not returned to him within the next few days he will make trouble for the finder.

An exciting baseball game took place on the Bellevue diamond last Sunday between the El Verano base ball team and the Solres Brothers of San Francisco. The boys played good ball and owing to Carl Weaver's fast pitching the El Verano team won, the score being 9 to 13 at the end of the ninth inning.

Our town was thrown into a high state of excitement Monday afternoon over a mix up between a stranger hailing from Petaluma and a well-known business man of this quiet and peaceable burg. The local combatant, who is a straight shot with a brick, succeeded in landing a large rock on his adversary's back, placing him hors de combat. A near-by automobile was impressed into service as an ambulance, and conveyed the injured Chickaluman to Dr. Thomson's office in Sonoma, who was compelled to sew up the man's scalp which had been badly cut with the rock.

That business is fast picking up is evident by the large crowds of strangers who congregate around our postoffice and railroad depot on the arrival of the trains. Uncle Sam's postmaster and his assistant and the Southern Pacific Company's force are kept on the jump the entire day.

The little "house that Jack built" some years ago as a residence for barber DeFont is finally at rest after much litigation. It now occupies a site on a lot on Riverside avenue, and will be converted into a jail as soon as that Deputy Constable is appointed. Sergeant Pork of San Francisco, who tips the beam at 200 pounds, and a crew of house-movers performed the stunt of moving the building in scientific style.

ARCHIBALD MCKIVER.

El Verano, June 20, 1911.

ANNUAL DANCE OF BAND BOYS.

Largely Attended by Party-
Going People—Decidedly a Social and Financial Success

The annual dance given by the Sonoma Valley Band in Union Hall last Saturday evening was largely attended by the party-going people of Sonoma and vicinity. Seventy-five couples were present and danced to the music of a full brass band.

S. D. Glaister had charge of the floor and that he understood his business no better evidence was wanting than the fact that there were no wall-flowers among the ladies present. Owing to the indefatigable efforts of the floor manager there were partners for everybody and everybody danced. The result was the affair was voted by all those present as one of the most sociable and enjoyable dances held in this city for many a day.

The band boys realized a neat little sum of money from the sale of admission tickets, which will be applied to the purchase of their new uniforms which they will don for the first time in the parade here on the Fourth of July.

Boys Escape From Sonoma State Home

Two sixteen-year-old half-witted lads escaped from the Sonoma State Home at Eldridge last Sunday evening and when last seen were walking in the direction of Petaluma. One of the youngsters is of Mexican parentage and the other is an American. Reports from the home say that the boys are dangerous to be at large and every effort possible is being made to effect their capture. Officers all over the county have been notified to look out for the fugitives.

The Passing of the Slot Machine

The law passed by the last Legislature making it a penal offense to maintain a slot machine in saloons, cigar stores or any where else for that matter went into effect on the 21st inst. The passage of this law by the legislature will deprive this city, as well as all the incorporated towns and cities of the state of a great deal of revenue in the way of a license tax which was imposed upon the machines, for the privilege of maintaining them.

Miss Amy Rowe, a milliner of 7 years experience, has arranged to take charge of the hat trimming department at G. H. Hotz's store. Bring in your hat and have it made new. G. H. Hotz.

SONOMA WOMAN'S CLUB NOTES.

As Reported by its Accredited Representative—Woman's Franchise League is Endorsed

At the social meeting of the Woman's Club last Friday more than usual time was given to business, as many items were brought up concerning the coming Fourth of July celebration. Three new names were proposed for membership.

After listening to two of Miss Ella Bethune's always welcome songs, the club discussed the formation of a branch of the Club Woman's Franchise League, of which Congressman and Mrs. Kent are among the inspiring leaders. This league is one of the most active among the many organizations now working so enthusiastically to gain political equality for women. While working largely through club women, almost as many men as women are enrolled as members and among recent speakers at the crowded mass meetings held by the League in San Francisco have been Hon. Albert Elliot, Rev. Dr. Clappett, Dr. Aked, Wm. C. Ralston and David Starr Jordan.

The Sonoma club voted by large majority to endorse the movement, but to leave each individual free to subscribe her name or not as she chose. At the close of the meeting a large majority of those present joined the league, of which Mrs. G. H. Hotz had already been made Sonoma's Vice President.

While tea and cakes were being served by the hostess, Mrs. M. Murphy, Mrs. Lulu Emparan consented to sing the old Spanish favorite, "La Paloma," to the great delight of her friends.

Every member of the Fourth of July Committee, as well as chairmen of booths, were requested to be present at the meeting at Mrs. Hotz's residence the Friday afternoon before the Fourth at 3 p. m. L. S. DUHRING, Club Reporter.

Tag Day on July 4th.

HARBOR VIEW THE LOGICAL SITE FOR THE EXPOSITION.

THE Board of Directors of the Panama-Pacific Exposition are still wrestling with the problem of choosing a site for the Exposition. At a meeting of the directors on Thursday night, at which twenty-three of the directors were present, the first vote was taken to decide the site controversy. Of these, eleven voted for Harbor View, eight for Golden Gate Park and four for Lake Merced.

Twenty-three being a "hoo-doo" number of course there was no decision, as it requires 16 votes to select a site and the meeting adjourned late at night with the site still in the air. The ballot, which was one in the nature of a test vote, would seem to indicate, however, that the Harbor View site will ultimately be chosen.

This is as it should be. Harbor View has every argument in its favor and is the only logical site so far offered. It commands a magnificent view of the finest bay on the continent and will be accessible by land or sea to the millions who will be here in 1915 to witness one of the biggest, greatest and most magnificent marine expositions the world has ever known.

Oh, These Women! These Horrid Women!

Mrs. Sarah Jane Burris, wife of Henry Burris, who recently commenced divorce proceedings against his wife of a day, alleging he had been forced into the matrimonial yoke at the point of a pistol, filed a demurrer to the complaint of her unwilling spouse on Tuesday last. This move implies that the madam will contest the divorce proceedings to the bitter end. And why not, for has not Shakespeare, the immortal bard, proclaimed that "hell hath no fury like a woman scorned."

One of the Escapes From the Sonoma State Home Located

Fred. Kynoch, residing on the Burns ranch on the west side of Sonoma mountain, reports having seen the Mexican lad, one of the two escapes from the Sonoma State Home, on Tuesday last. He observed the youngster standing near a fence and went down to see what he wanted. He asked the demented fellow questions but received no answer. Finally the Mexican started to run saying that he wanted to see the mountains. He looked wild and stared blankly at Kynoch. When he saw a chance he ran up the hill and disappeared. The unfortunate fellow looked as if he had not had anything to eat for days.

Accident on the Kearns Ranch

Wm. Boan, an employee on the Senator Kearns ranch in the Los Guilicos Valley, had his left hand badly crushed, one day this week, while working on a hay press. Not being familiar with the mechanism of the press he touched a lever which caused the five-ton machine to drop on his hand, crushing it in frightful manner.

Gone Back to Pedagogy.

Will O. Hocker, ex-principal of Sonoma grammar school and who gave up pedagogy eight or ten years ago to enter the journalistic field in which he did not become a modern Horace Greeley, has returned to his original avocation and accepted the principalship of the Glen Ellen grammar school, which reopens on August 7th.

Convent Circulating Library

This year, as usual, Mrs. R. P. Hill donated $8.00 to be expended on two gold medals. These medals are given to be competed for by the classes in Christian doctrine, attending the Convent here and those of St. Mary's Church in Glen Ellen. Owing to circumstances beyond control, these awards were not presented at the Convent's late closing exercises. However, Mrs. Hill kindly permitted the money to be used for the purpose of obtaining new reading matter for the Convent circulating library. This library is open, not only to the pupils of Christian doctrine attending the Convent school, but also to those of same study attending St. Mary's class in Glen Ellen. The only conditions of membership are that those using the books do not abuse them, under penalty of fine of fifty cents, and that books be returned within a fortnight of their being borrowed.

Both the Sisters and the pupils tender sincere thanks to Mrs. Hill for her constant generosity in the matter of material interest in the spread of Christian Doctrine. May the wish be permitted expression that the other members of St. Francis' and St. Mary's congregations be stimulated to follow her noble example. Every mite counts and makes our school library a joy for many years to come.

Moving pictures every night at El Verano Villa.

Mass Meeting

A public meeting of the citizens of Sonoma, will be held under the auspices of the Men's League, at the City Hall, for the purpose of discussing ways and means for better Fire Protection and obtaining lower insurance rates for Sonoma.

All interested are urgently requested to attend and invited to take part.

By order of the Men's League,
F. W. DOBBEL,
Vice President.

VINEBURG NEWS AND PERSONALS

"Easy Jim" Tells of the Week's Happenings in His Section

A large number of people were here from San Francisco last Sunday visiting friends and relatives.

William McIntosh has returned from his trip north and is now enjoying himself at his beautiful country home near here.

Carpenter Englund is busy building a handsome cottage for our village blacksmith, Mr. Anderson, which will be a credit to the burg.

Mrs. Mitchell of San Francisco visited her son and daughter, Mr. Edward and Miss Marie, at their country home, "Oak Leaf Cottage" on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodor Pierson entertained a number of friends from the bay cities at their romantic "Oak Grove" home on the Hyde tract Sunday.

The orchardists in this section of the valley are making daily shipments of large quantities of cherries from this point to San Francisco and other cities.

Jack Murray, our genial blacksmith, is kept quite busy these days between running a shop in this place and Sonoma. Jack, however, is always on hand when wanted.

The Gundlach-Bundschu wine company of Rhinefarm still continue to ship large quantities of wine from the railway station at this place to San Francisco and points east.

Enrico Forni, President of the Pleasant Villa Wine Company, says he has not joined the wine trust. He makes all his wine and will dispose of it without the assistance of the trust.

Messrs. Fred. and Arthur Batto made a business trip to Petaluma and Santa Rosa on Tuesday last and returned home the same day with a brand new five-passenger Overland auto. It is a perfect dream.

Louis Rouquie started his hay baling press Wednesday morning. Some one was heard to ask if all the hay in the valley would be pressed, as the crop is a heavy one this season. Sure, Mike, just leave that to Louie.

Ethel Eastlake is writing an article for an eastern magazine entitled "How to Beat the Railroads." Don't do it, my dear Ethel. Change the caption to "How to Stand in With the Railroads," and you surely will make a hit as a magazine writer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ganders of San Francisco were the guests of the Groskoff family at their home "Whispering Pines" on Sunday last. They returned to the Bay City in the afternoon accompanied by their daughter, Miss Helen, who has been spending the week there.

A romance in high life—A young couple living five miles from here recently made up their minds to elope, and being of a romantic turn of mind they concluded to "beat it"—that is to say, walk to Gretna Green. The young couple were well shod, and before hiking out requested Jim Small to ship their trunk to them. The accommodation was granted in the suit of Oaks vs. Petaluma maker before the trunk is located. The suit of Oaks vs. Petaluma maker before the trunk is located. The suit of Oaks vs. Petaluma maker before the trunk is located.

Frank Kennedy of San Francisco is spending his vacation here. He is a guest at the Vineburg Hotel. This is Mr. Kennedy's twelfth summer here. He marked the other day that he could not help observing the marked improvements going in this valley of late years and he predicts big things for what he terms one of the loveliest valleys anywhere, not excepting the world. Mr. Kennedy has resided on the Pacific coast over fifty years and ought to know what he is talking about.

Do You Feel This Way?

Do you feel all tired out? Do you sometimes think you just can't work away at your profession or trade any longer? Do you have a poor appetite, and lay awake at nights unable to sleep? ## WORK ON SEWER HAS COMMENCED

Ground Was Broken Thursday—
Contract Calls for Completion of Work in One Hundred
Working Days

Work on Sonoma's $20,000 sewer was commenced last Thursday by J. F. O'Brien & Co. of San Francisco, who have contracted with the city to do the construction work for $6176.38. The company on Monday last filed a bond for one half the contract price to complete the work inside of 100 working days.

The Windsor Pottery Works of Alameda county also filed a bond with the City Trustees for furnishing all pipe needed in the construction of the sewer. This bond also covers one half the contract price, which is $3933.60.

Hay Market This Week

Somers & Co., in their weekly report on the condition of the hay market for the week ending June 21st, say:

"Receipts of hay during the past week totaled 2280 tons, a somewhat less amount than the week preceding and considerably less than has been coming in during the last two months, but nevertheless the situation does not improve, nor are receivers of hay any better able by reason of the light arrivals to market their hay to any advantage. There has been, we believe, less activity in hay during the last month than we have experienced for a long time at this period of the year. Doubtless the lateness of the season is responsible for this to some extent, but we think it principally due to the fact that hay in the country is held too high and consumers, believing low prices will prevail, refuse to purchase or contract at the present time.

"As harvesting progresses it is seen that the crop is heavier than any one thought it would be, but the late cool spring has proven to be a boon to the country as far as hay and grain are concerned. "The local market is practically bare of new hay. An occasional car of volunteer arrives, but receivers find it difficult to sell in competition with the old hay with which the market is well supplied."

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH TO BE CELEBRATED ON GRAND SCALE

The New Sonoma will do itself proud on that day
With a Spectacular Parade, Martial Music, Patriotic Exercises, Horse Racing and Many Other Features.

1776 1911

Everybody is busy in Sonoma these days working up the big celebration to be held here on the Fourth of July.

The Sonoma Valley Woman's Club, headed by its President, Mrs. G. H. Hotz, and with a membership of nearly one hundred of the leading women of both town and valley, will have charge of that part of the celebration to be held on Sonoma's eight-acre Plaza, so beautifully located right in the heart of the city, and which will culminate with a patriotic entertainment and grand ball in the evening in Union Hall.

The program to be carried out under the auspices of the Woman's Club will include tag day, martial music by the Sonoma Valley Band of twenty-eight pieces, patriotic exercises, speaking, a cafeteria lunch for everybody, consisting of beans, sandwiches, coffee, ice cream, etc. There will also be games, donkey rides and all sorts of fun on the Plaza, all of which will be carried out by the club women for the benefit of Sonoma's new Carnegie library.

A leading feature of the day's festivities will be a spectacular and imposing parade to take place at 10:30 in the morning, which will be in charge of a special committee of citizens recently appointed by Mayor Cummings. This committee is composed of Henry F. Bates, chairman; Will E. Clewe, Dr. W. B. Hays, G. H. Hotz, M. S. Beyer, Will Werner, J. P. Weems, L. S. Simmons, Henry Watters and C. Newman.

This committee is working like

Trojans to keep up their end of the celebration and will no doubt make the parade one of the most imposing ever seen in this city. There

Sonoma Giants Defeat the Oakland Arrows

The Arrows of Oakland went down to defeat before the Sonoma Giants on the baseball grounds here Sunday. The score stood 6 to 0 in favor of the local team. At no stage of the game did the Arrows get a look in and if they were not disgusted at their failure to score they certainly looked it. The Giants were in good form and as a whole played a splendid game. The contest between Boyes Hi-Balls and the Elbee Juniors of San Francisco, which preceded the other game, was an interesting one but was a disappointment to rooters for the Hi-Balls, who were defeated by a score of 8 to 5. The Hi-Balls will play the W. T. Valentine's of San Francisco tomorrow (Sunday morning). The game will be called at 10:15 sharp. This game will no doubt be a hotly contested one as the local team has determined to win this time, as so far they have failed to win a single game this season.

Mrs. Tony Happe Sues for a Divorce

Mrs. Happe, wife of Tony Happe ex-proprietor of the Bismarck Hotel in this city, has commenced divorce proceedings in the Superior Court of this county against her spouse, who deserted her about a year ago. The couple were married at Embarcadero several years ago and things did not run smoothly in the family and one day last year Happe packed a suitcase and without previous warning lit out on his own hook, leaving his wife the hotel business. H. P. Mathewson is the attorney for Mrs. Happe.

FOOLED HIM BADLY.

Now He Kicks on Letters Written in the Third Person.

In one of the Paris restaurants a party of literary men were discussing the merits of various epistolary styles. One of them, Monsieur A., made a fierce attack on letters written in the third person, such as "Monsieur X. has the honor to inform"—and so on. Another of the party defended them, maintaining that they were not only more ceremonious, but that they were more polite.

"That's a good idea," replied Monsieur A. "The foundation of all politeness in letter writing is to express clearly what you mean to say. Now, nothing can be more ambiguous than these confounded notes in the third person. I will just tell you what happened to myself. I received from my friend D., the chief of division, a billet doux, which I will show you."

Taking the note from his pocket, Monsieur A. read as follows: "Monsieur D., chief of division at the war office, hastens to inform his friend, Monsieur A., that he has just been named chevalier of the Legion of Honor."

"You can fancy my delight at reading this note," continued Monsieur A. "I was the happiest man in the world. I ran to an engraver and ordered him to make the flatterer addition to my cards, 'Monsieur A., Chevalier of the Legion of Honor.' I ran to a mercer's and bought a piece of the richest red ribbon for my buttonhole. I ran to the houses of my friends for the pleasure of receiving their congratulations. At last I ran to my friend D.'s. As soon as I caught sight of him I threw myself into his arms. 'Ah, my dear fellow,' I exclaimed, 'you have no idea what pleasure you have given. How shall I ever thank you sufficiently?' 'You are an excellent fellow, my worthy A., to sympathize thus with my happiness.' 'Thank you for that expression; the decoration is mine, and the happiness is yours.' 'How is that? Have you received the order?' 'Certainly; have I not?' 'No, my good friend; 'tis I who am now made chevalier.' 'You?' 'Yes. You deserve the honor more than I do, but, nevertheless, it has been conferred on me.' 'But you wrote me word that I had received the cross.' I took his letter out of my pocket and showed it him. Alas! I now understood clearly what meaning I ought to assign to the ambiguous phrase, 'The deuce take you and your note,' I said to D. 'Instead of your affected and formal announcement in the third person, why could you not write to me simply and plainly, 'My dear friend, I have the pleasure of informing you that I now am decoree chevalier?''

Quakers Never "Nervous." It is not in my memory that a professing Quaker ever came into my hands to be treated for nervousness. If the opinion I have already stated so often is correct, namely, that want of control of the emotions and the over-expression of the feelings are prime causes of nervousness, then the fact that discipline of the emotions is a lesson early and constantly taught by Friends would help to account for the infrequency of this disorder among them and add emphasis to the belief in such causation.—From "Self Help For Nervous Women," by Dr. Keatsley Mitchell.

A Remarkable Man. John Ziska, the great Hussite leader of the fifteenth century, was one of the most remarkable men that ever lived. His life story reads like a romance. Nothing in history is more interesting, more thrilling, than the account of his heroic deeds. Though blind and always greatly outnumbered, Ziska invariably beat his enemies and established for himself a fame that will last forever. He was never beaten in a battle. His very name was a terror to his enemies. He died in 1424, while besieging Prazalslaw, at the age of sixty-four.—New York American.

Spoons. The origin of the spoon is uncertain. It must have been invented at a very ancient date, for it is found among people that have never come into contact with civilization. The necessity of having some implement for dipping water seems to have led first to the invention of the calabash or the use of the coconut shell and later on to the spoon.

Didn't Know "the Uncle." Aunt Jane—I guess Mr. Spender must be a very neat person. Edith—And what leads you to that opinion? Aunt Jane—He told your Uncle George all his clothes but those upon his back were hung up. Some men, you know, throw their things round anywhere.—Boston Transcript.

Mistook the Punctuation. The Young Woman (surprised and indignant)—How dared you kiss me, sir? Penitent Young Man—Why, you said you'd like to see me do it. The Young Woman—But you know as well as I do that I said it with an exclamation point at the end!—Chicago Tribune.

The Assent Sarcastic. He (at the end of a fishing story)—My word, it was a monster! 'Tou my word, I never saw such a fish in my life! She—I don't believe you ever did!—London Mail.

Riches are able to solder up an abundance of fumes.—Corveta.
